AN ACT

For the relief of the Clayton County Journal and Wilber Harris.

Clayton County
Journal and Wilber Harris.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Clayton County Journal of Jonesboro, Georgia, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,506.49, representing additional postage due on copies of such Journal mailed during the period from January 1967, through July 1967, as a result of the assessment of postage at incorrect rates by officials of the Post Office Department.

SEC. 2. Wilber Harris, of Jonesboro, Georgia, is hereby relieved of all liability for repayment to the United States of the sum of $1,506.49, representing the amount of a postage deficiency charged his account as postmaster of Jonesboro, Georgia, for failure to collect the correct postage from the Clayton County Journal.

SEC. 3. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Clayton County Journal and Wilber Harris the sum of any amounts received from them on account of the postage deficiency referred to in the first and second sections of this Act.

(b) No part of any amount appropriated in this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with these claims, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 17, 1970.

AN ACT

For the relief of Captain Norman W. Stanley.

Capt. Norman W.
Stanley, USAF.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Captain Norman W. Stanley of San Jose, California, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $2,371.44, representing overpayments of salary from September 18, 1961, through March 17, 1966, paid to him as a member of the United States Air Force as the result of an administrative error which occurred without fault on his part. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, full credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the said Captain Norman W. Stanley the sum of any amounts received or withheld from him on account of the overpayments referred to in the first section of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with such claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 17, 1970.

AN ACT

For the relief of John T. Anderson.

August 17, 1970
[H. R. 2241]

John T.
Anderson.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $137.50 to John T. Anderson of Morris Plains, New Jersey, in full settlement of his claim against the United States for the cost of shipping his automobile, incident to his separation from the Department of the Air Force, from Bremerhaven, Germany, to Baltimore, Maryland, in 1962. Such shipping costs were incurred after an officer of the United States Army Transportation Corps erroneously refused to authorize shipment of such automobile on a Government vessel.

SEC. 2. No part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with such claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 17, 1970.
